

Thank you for your interest in Master Ministries International, Inc. Every month, MMII reaches thousands of people from every continent on earth through the Internet.

Our Mission: To provide FREE Biblically based audio and video messages, sermon transcriptions, and articles that will expose popular but unBiblical errors and stir believers to personal revival.

MMII receives no funds from a denomination, endowments, or group(s). We rely upon the gifts of many people. We appreciate even small donations which support MMII's world-wide ministry.

MMII, a 501(c)3 non-profit corporation, will respond to your gift promptly with a receipt that will enable you to claim your contribution as a deduction on your income tax report (available to those who file income tax reports with the USA Internal Revenue Service). To contribute to this vital worldwide ministry, you can choose between several choices.
